

Workshop Diversity of scientific cultures during and after the Cold War

Tallinn, Estonia
14 June 2019

Venue: Akadeemia tee 3, room 308.

If you need help, please call: +372-501-6940

Welcome Address

10.00 – 10.15

Invited Talks

10.15 – 12.30

- 1. Ksenia Tatarchenko: Rational or Sustainable? Science and Siberian Futures across 1991
- 2. Michael Barany: Out of Poldavia: Real and fabricated Soviet emigrés and the cultural-political imaginaries of mid-century Western mathematics
- 3. Izabela Wagner: Dynamics of career-coupling relationships. Master-disciple relationship patterns in the East and West research worlds

Lunch break

12.30 – 13.30

Contributed talks

13.30 – 15.00

- 1. Polina Petruhina: Cultural convergences and divergences in international collaborations in high-energy physics: the Cold War and present
- 2. Olessya Kirtchik: Complexity, Cognition and Control in “Big Systems”: the case of Tseltin’s ‘learning automata’
- 3. Simon Byungjin Lee: Remains of cold war - U.S assistance program and Korea’s science and technology administration system

Break

15.00 – 15.30

Contributed talks

15.30 – 16.00

- 4. Endla Lõhkivi: Before and after the change: reflections on research cultures in Estonian physics institutes

Final discussion

16.00 – 17.00

Program